Description

Positioned right on the beach about 50 feet from the water at Long Beach is this rare piece of beach front land. Long beach stretches for over a mile and is ideal for kite and wind surfing. The beach sits in-front of a protected area of natural beauty that provides a rest haven for migrating birds to alight on their annual trip across the Atlantic. As a result the beach is peaceful and secluded with few visitors aware of its location and beauty.

This lot is literally on the beach and comes with planning permission already approved for two units to be built on it.
