Description

Located just above the mature neighbourhoods of Holders and John's Plain and next to Dairy Meadows is this privately tucked away lot in the Bamboo Ridge development. Most of the houses in this area are reasonably comfortable family homes with enclosed gardens tucked away among the meandering neighbourhood cul-de-sac's that branch off in various directions.

Though close to Holetown and Warrens, the area is very green and quite rural in its setting. The land itself does feature a large natural water way or spring hole in its center which will require some management in terms of building a home on it.

SALE PRICE: BB$150,000 - US$75,000
