Description

If you are looking for history with your own modern flair then this is the place you have been looking for.

Located a stone's throw away from the old Cotton Tower, adjacent to the famed Hackletons Cliff on the east side of the island and a 5-minute drive to the East Coast beaches is Buckden Estate.

This immense lot was the former home of Buckden Plantation Great House and the entrance and exit to the lot still give the feel of a historic location. Nestled among the sugar cane fields that surround the property are the lovely large Royal Palms which give character and definition to the site. The well-hidden open area where a house once sat is quite obvious once you enter this exceptional property.
